I hope everyone had a Merry Christmas!

This Sunday, its time to shoot again! We have a great match this month with Paul S. as our match director (again!). As a reminder...this is the same match we were supposed to shoot last month before we got rained out. So go online and pull up the November Newsletter to refresh your memory.

We should have a perfect weather day on Sunday, according to the latest reports, so come on out a little early to help us set-up and show off your favorite Christmas presents. I'll have some hot coffee there for everyone.

I am looking forward to Sunday because I really missed seeing everyone last month. This time of year we all take stock of our blessings and Maria and I have more to be thankful for than we have any right to expect, and I hope the same is true for you. One of my cherished blessings is the good friends I have made shooting this great sport with each of you!

See you Sunday,

Kevin J.
